

Pascal D. Forgione, Jr.

Executive Director of the ETS Center on K-12 Assessment and Performance Management and ETS Distinguished Presidential Scholar. Pat has previously served as superintendent of the Austin Independent School District, U. S. Commissioner of Education Statistics, director of the National Education Goals Panel, and director of Connecticut statewide student and teacher assessment programs and research.

Raymond Pecheone

Co-Executive Director of the Stanford School Redesign Network and the Director of the Performance Assessment for California Teachers (PACT) program which serves as a model for the joint AACTE/ CCSSO/ Stanford "Teacher Performance Assessment Consortium." Previously Ray has served as the Connecticut Bureau Chief for Curriculum and Teacher Assessment, co-founder of INTASC, the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium, and co-director the first Assessment Development Laboratory for the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards.

Hilda Rosselli

Dean of the college of Education at Western Oregon University. Hilda has previously been Associate Dean for Teacher Education at the University of South Florida, Director of the College of education Honor's program, creator of a Professional Development School for the college of education, teacher at the university level and director of the Governor's Summer Programs—residential summer camps that focused on leadership development for middle school and high school students.