

The CAEP Accreditation Council is the accrediting body of CAEP. It determines the accreditation status of educator preparation providers (EPPs) and appoints volunteers to serve in roles related to the accreditation process.

At the fall 2017 meeting, on October 23, 2017, the following actions were taken.

ACCREDITATION COUNCIL ACTIONS

CAEP STANDARDS

The recent meeting of CAEP's Accreditation Council culminates several years of preparation and deliberation on the part of both the EPPs seeking accreditation and CAEP. Beginning with the self-study process and ending with the deliberation of the Council, much thought and effort goes into the accreditation process. CAEP accepts and relies on the decisions made by its site teams and the Council. EPPs were examined as required throughout each stage of the accreditation process to determine the degree to which each of the CAEP Standards were met. Meeting the CAEP Standards requires comprehensive self-evaluation and demonstration through evidence in each of the following areas: 1) content and pedagogical knowledge, 2) clinical partnerships and practice, 3) candidate quality, recruitment, and selectivity, 4) program impact, and 5) provider quality assurance, continuous improvement, and capacity.

ACCREDITATION GRANTED:

CAEP STANDARDS

Accreditation for seven (7) years is granted if the EPP meets all of the CAEP Standards and required components, even if areas for improvement (AFIs) are identified in the final report of the Accreditation Council.

These EPPs have earned national accreditation in educator preparation for the first time:

School of Education
Avila University
Missouri

Teacher Preparation Program
Christopher Newport University
Virginia

The Dorothy M. Bush College of Education
Dallas Baptist University
Texas

Morgridge College of Education
University of Denver

The CAEP Accreditation Council is the accrediting body of CAEP. It determines the accreditation status of educator preparation providers (EPPs) and appoints volunteers to serve in roles related to the accreditation process.

At the fall 2017 meeting, on October 23, 2017, the following actions were taken for providers seeking accreditation through legacy NCATE Standards.

NCATE STANDARDS

The recent meeting of CAEP's Accreditation Council culminates several years of preparation and examination of the EPPs seeking NCATE accreditation. Beginning with the institutional-reporting process and ending with the deliberation of the Council, much thought and effort goes into the accreditation process. EPPs were examined as required throughout each stage of the accreditation process to determine the degree to which each of the NCATE Standards were met. Meeting the NCATE Standards requires comprehensive self-evaluation and demonstration in each of the following areas: 1) candidate knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions; 2) assessment system and unit evaluation; 3) field experiences and clinical practice; 4) diversity; 5) faculty qualifications, performance, and development; and 6) unit governance and resources.

CONTINUING ACCREDITATION AFTER A FULL OR FOCUSED VISIT: NCATE STANDARDS

Accreditation for the duration of an institution's seven-year accreditation cycle is confirmed after a full or focused visit is conducted to remove previous problems or concerns.

Accreditation for two years with a focused visit

When one or more standard(s) is not met and concerns center on the unmet standard(s), the Commission will request a visit focused on that standard(s) within two years of the semester of the onsite visit.

Accreditation for two years with a full visit

When one or more standard(s) is not met and problems exist across standards, the Commission will request a visit addressing all standards within two years of the semester of the onsite visit.

The CAEP Accreditation Council is the accrediting body of CAEP. It determines the accreditation status of educator preparation providers (EPPs) and appoints volunteers to serve in roles related to the accreditation process.

At the fall 2017 meeting, on October 23, 2017, the following actions were taken for programs at providers seeking accreditation through legacy TEAC Quality Principles.

TEAC QUALITY PRINCIPLES

The recent meeting of CAEP's Accreditation Council culminates several years of preparation and examination of the EPPs seeking accreditation. Beginning with the inquiry process and ending with the deliberation of the Council, much thought and effort goes into the accreditation process. EPP programs were examined, as required, throughout each stage of the accreditation process to determine the degree to which each of the TEAC Quality Principles were met. Meeting the TEAC Quality Principles requires a comprehensive audit and demonstration in each of the following areas: 1) evidence of candidate learning, 2) evidence of faculty learning and inquiry, and 3) evidence of institutional commitment and capacity for program quality.

CONTINUING ACCREDITATION AFTER STIPULATION REMOVAL: TEAC QUALITY PRINCIPLES

Programs that submit an Inquiry Brief and successfully complete the accreditation process with all the requirements of TEAC's quality principles met earn accreditation for seven years. Programs that hold an accreditation status for seven years are required to submit an Inquiry Brief in the seventh year.
