

Marietta College - Assistant / Associate Professor in Special Education

Job Description: Marietta College's highly ranked teacher education program invites applications for a tenure-track assistant or associate professor position in Special Education. The successful candidate will have knowledge and experience with effective teaching methods in Special Education, ideally at the elementary school level. Knowledge and experience with inclusion classrooms, resource rooms, co-teaching, and teacher education accreditation standards is desirable.

Teaching responsibilities for the position may include and but not limited to the following: co-teaching, universal design for learning, PBIS, foundations of education, trauma-informed classrooms, educational psychology, educational assessment, special education methods, or technology in the classroom.

Duties include advising undergraduate education students, supervising clinical interns and field experience students, cultivating and strengthening partnerships with K-12 schools, and participating in accreditation efforts.

Additional responsibilities may include working with our Pioneer Pipeline program (a transitional program for high school students with significant developmental disabilities), participating in seeking grant funding for initiatives, and a willingness to assist with summer professional development programs for local teachers.

Requirements: · Education requirement: Ph.D. or Ed.D. in Education with an emphasis in Special Education; ABD will be considered. P-12 teaching experience. Other Desirable Qualifications: Prior experience in supervising interns or teacher candidates in field experiences. Familiarity with the edTPA

Review of candidates will commence on November 15th and continue until the position is filled. If you have any questions about the position, please contact: Tanya Judd Pucella, Ph.D. Chair, Marietta College Department of Education 740-376-4490 tj002@marietta.edu

Application Instructions: Applicants should submit a letter of interest outlining relevant skills and experiences the candidate will bring to the position, a current curriculum vita, three letters of recommendation, and a list of references.

APPLY AT: <http://marietta.interviewexchange.com/candapply.jsp?JOBID=117267>

Marietta College is an equal opportunity educator and employer that values diversity. The College seeks to enhance the diversity of its faculty and staff. People of color, women, veterans, and persons with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply. Marietta College does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, national or ethnic origin, disability, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, or religious affiliation.